

08 GROWING OLD GRACEFULLY HOW RELIGION HELPS

For many older people in Ireland, membership of the church enhances feelings of well being and belonging

By Anne Dempsey

15 THE POPE AND THE BIG BANG

A real headache for atheists is the very simple question: how can something come from nothing?

By Kenneth J. Francis

18 WE NEED TO RE-THINK INFANT BAPTISM

When a child is born in the Catholic community it's often not long before invites to the baptism are duly dispatched. But is our sprint to the font driven by the right motives?

By Jackie Minnock

22 A SAINTLY QUEEN?

It's only a few months since the wedding of William and Catherine; now a move is under way to have another royal, Katharine of Aragon, canonised by the Catholic Church

By Thomas J. Craughwell

26 TESTIFYING TO GOD'S LOVE

Founded by a young English Catholic more than 20 years ago, Youth 2000 is all about young people evangelising young people

By Susan Gately

29 BREAD OF HEAVEN

For one monastery of contemplative nuns, manufacturing altar breads is a way not only to serve God but to earn their daily bread

By Sue Leonard

32 LISTEN UP!

If we are to grow to our full potential as human beings, we need to examine our readiness to listen: to others, to God, and to ourselves

By Paddy O'Meara

34 BANKING ON A BETTER FUTURE

There are small steps we all can take to reverse the economic fortunes of our country

By Margaret Lee

36 MY ABORTION NIGHTMARE: ONE MAN'S STORY OF RECONCILIATION

A decision made in his 20s was to haunt Brendan for many years. But after several suicide attempts, he finally received the means to kick start the healing process